Sceretary McCulloch.

The World's Washington special says:
When Secretary McCulloch was in New York the merchants and business men generally urged upon him the propriety of making the appointment for Collector of New York at once. Since his return, after conferring with the President, it has been decided to postpone the matter a few weeks.
The Secretary has notified Mr. Van Dyke, Assistant Treasurer of New York, who is strongly supported for the Collectorship, that he could not dispense with his services as Assistant Treasurer.
